Givaudan's Daniela Andrier received the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Perfumer Award from The Fragrance Foundation (TFF) USA

Givaudan, the global leader in fine fragrances, is delighted to share that Daniela Andrier, Master Perfumer, has received the 2025 TFF Lifetime Achievement Perfumer Award celebrating her accomplished career and dedication to the art of perfumery. TFF Lifetime Achievement distinction was presented on 5 June 2025, in front of an audience at the Lincoln Center in New York.

Linda G. Levy, President of The Fragrance Foundation USA said: "The emotional and creative highs of the evening were heightened to new levels through Daniela Andrier's mastery of perfumery and storytelling, which were expressed so personally in her presentation. Honouring Daniela with the 2025 Lifetime Achievement Perfumer for her fragrance portfolio and impact in fragrance at Lincoln Center was so appropriate as it is truly an art form. We celebrate the creative artistry and sheer emotion of the artist behind them that inspires and resonates with the consumer."

Daniela Andrier, Master Perfumer at Givaudan, expressed her gratitude, stating: "In my work I find inspiration in the unexpected combination of colours and blending the rare with the ordinary. It is essential to avoid clichés and resist the unnecessary urge to be modern. True depth comes from humility—understanding where we come from, appreciating tradition, and recognising the significance of culture in our craft. I am deeply passionate about crafting fragrances, and receiving this prestigious recognition from The Fragrance Foundation USA holds significant meaning for me as a perfumer."

Commencing her academic path studying philosophy at the Sorbonne in Paris, Daniela realised her passion for perfumery. In 1988 she launched her career beginning as an intern at Chanel, soon after joining the revered Roure Perfumery School, which is now part of Givaudan. Today, she continues to bring her talent to the Givaudan creative team as a Master Perfumer. Her most celebrated creations include the 'Les Infusions' collection for Prada, MYSLF (in collaboration with Christophe Raynaud and Antoine Maisondieu), and Fleur d'Oranger for Fragonard.
